

Baltic Sea Strategy Forum 2021

“Webinar and lead-in to #BSSF22”

Tuesday, 21 December 2021, 01:00 – 02:30 p.m. CET

Online via MS Teams

Webinar Agenda

13:00- 14:30

While the global Covid pandemic still holds the world’s societies in firm grip, maritime security challenges remain urgent. In the Baltic Sea Area, the strategic and operational situation also continues to evolve. At this end-of-year #BSSF21 webinar we take stock of the situation and debate challenges in the Baltic Sea and beyond while also looking ahead for the larger in-person #BSSF22 (by invitation only) in Stockholm
Chair: Henrik Breitenbauch, CMS University of Copenhagen

10-12min presentations followed by moderated Q&A

- “The dual-use capability of North Stream 2 – an overlooked maritime security risk in the Baltic?”
Johannes Peters, Head Center for Maritime Strategy & Security, ISPK Kiel
- “Key findings of a FOI study on the Russian Baltic Fleet”
Jonas Kjellén, Analyst, FOI Stockholm
- “Key findings of a FOI study on navies in the Indo-Pacific”
Samuel Bergenwall, Senior Analyst, FOI Stockholm
- Lead-in to #BSSF22
Niklas Granholm, Deputy Director of Studies Division for Defence Analysis, FOI Stockholm
